FirstLine Schools Overview

Facilities Maintenance Mandatory Pre-Bid Meeting
September 10, 2014
Our Mission
To create and inspire great open admission public schools in New Orleans

Primary Objectives
1) College Readiness
2) Rich variety of experiences
3) Staff skillfulness and sustainable organization
First Charter School in New Orleans

- Summerbridge (now called Breakthrough): The roots of FirstLine Schools trace to the founding of this unique summer program at Isidore Newman School designed to help 5th and 6th grade students gain acceptance into top middle schools in order to gain admission to college preparatory high school programs.

- 1992
  - James Lewis Extension: Working with a group of concerned parents, Jay Altman and the Summerbridge team founded this school, with 100 students and four teachers. Dr. Tony Recasner became the school’s director in 1993.

- 1998
  - New Orleans Charter Middle School (NOCMS): FirstLine Schools began as Middle School Advocates in 1998 when it was organized as the umbrella organization for New Orleans Charter Middle School, the city’s first charter school. James Lewis Extension converted into the city’s first charter school and adopted a new name. NOCMS became the top-performing open-admissions middle school in New Orleans.

- 2005
  - Samuel J Green Charter School: Middle School Advocates (the former name of FirstLine Schools) was approached by the state and asked to take over the failing Green Middle School. Green opened as a K-8 charter school the week before Katrina. The school reopened in January 2006.
Middle School Advocates becomes FirstLine Schools

2007

- Arthur Ashe Charter School & A New Name: Using the NOCMS charter to open a new K-8 school (later renamed Arthur Ashe), the school opened with fewer than 50 students and has grown to its current enrollment of over 400 students. MSA was changed to FirstLine Schools in 2008 to reflect the organization’s post-Katrina incarnation as an organization running primary, middle, and high schools.

2010

- John Dibert Community School & Langston Hughes Academy: Dibert became a FirstLine school in the Fall of 2010, after a request from the community to charter and operate the school. FLS began operating Langston Hughes Academy, via a management contract, at the same time.

2011

- Joseph S. Clark Preparatory High School: The doors opened on the newly chartered Clark Prep in August 2011. FirstLine’s first high school is a turnaround of an existing school.
